Dedication

On Tuesday night, June 5, 1951, the Senior Class of Pinehurst High School will graduate. This means that each of the seventeen members of the class begins a new way of life. No longer will their paths be mapped by school and parents, but each will be free to determine what his goal will be and by what route he will attain it. Today, as never before, life offers openings of various kinds. To choose the right one is the problem that faces each person. Only by careful thought and an ear attuned to God's voice can the right choice be made.

To this group we dedicate "The Sandspur" as a token of our affection and kindly interest. To them we extend congratulations and every good wish.

May they realize early that true happiness comes from unselfish service and that the world is full of opportunities for that kind of service.

Valedictorian

MARGIE GARNER

Margie Mary Garner, valedictorian of the 1951 Senior Class, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley L. Garner. Margie has made an enviable record as a student. Gifted in many ways, she seems to have special talent for newspaper work. Not only has she served well as editor of "The Sandspur," but for two or three years she has done excellent reporting for "The Pinehurst Outlook."

When a sophomore, Margie won the Debater's medal. When a junior, she was chief marshal and winner of the coveted Tufts Loyalty Award. During both years she has been active in the Beta Club. Margie plans to spend the next two years at Woman's College, and from there she will go to U.N.C. to major in her favorite field, journalism.

Salutatorian

JO ANN DAVIS

Jo Ann Davis, class salutatorian, has had a busy high school career. Not only has she done excellent work in her studies but she has found time to participate in many other school activities. For three years she was a valuable member of the basketball team. In 1950 and in 1951 she had a leading part in the senior play. She has held various offices in her class and in the Student Association, as well as serving as treasurer and as president of the Beta Club. The F.H.A. claimed her interest, too, and for a year she was president of that group. At three successive commencements Jo Ann has served as a marshal. Soon after she graduates, Jo Ann will begin work in the bookkeeping department of the Carolina Bank here in Pinehurst.

FAREWELL

A tear for old pals—so faithful, so few!
Another for parents, who've seen us through!
The last for teachers, whose patience held true!

Three tears shall we shed, and then no more!
Soon God with a rainbow will lead us ashore.
"Farewell, dear school," is the chant of each heart;
As we drifted together, so we now drift apart.

A tear for old pals—so faithful, so few!
Another for parents, who've seen us through!
The last for teachers, whose patience held true!

Though you may go your way and I go mine,
Fond memories of school days our hearts will enshrine,
And over the world, from mountains to foam,
When we think of quaint Pinehurst, we'll recall it as home.

DR. HORNELL HART

The commencement speaker this year is Dr. Hornell Hunt Hart, professor of sociology at Duke University. Dr. Hart is the author of several books. In 1949 he was Director of the Duke Peace Project. Dr. Hart will address the graduating class at 8:00 o'clock on Tuesday evening at the Community Church.

MARSHALL S. WOODSON

Dr. Marshall Woodson, president of Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, N.C., will preach the Pinehurst School commencement sermon Sunday, June 3, at eight o'clock in the Community Church. Dr. Woodson, a native Missourian, has spent most of his life in the Carolinas. He served as a chaplain in both world wars and is now on active duty with the U.S. Naval Reserve, permanent rank, Lieutenant Commander.

Trip To Washington

The Juniors and Seniors at Pinehurst High School returned Saturday evening, May 5, from their educational tour of Washington, D. C. in the school's new activities bus, which was bought recently for such trips.

The trip began early Wednesday morning, May 2, when the group left, waving to underclassmen, teachers, and parents at the school campus. Quite a few hours and a quick lunch (in Virginia) later, the bus purred up to the Annapolis Hotel, student headquarters for the next few days. After a nourishing meal in Thompson's Cafeteria, everyone was on his own for a bit of fun—a movie and stage show at the Capitol Theatre, "Oklahoma" at the Gayety Playgoer, or thrills at Glen Echo Amusement Park, just to name so few.

The first stop on Thursday morning was Ford Theatre where Abraham Lincoln was assassinated. This old theatre is now a museum which keeps alive the memory of a great American by preserving various Lincoln keepsakes and teaching to visitors the story of his life and assassination. Here also a movie of Washington was shown to familiarize the students with the big city.

Later Thursday the students visited Washington's own memorials to Thomas Jefferson and George Washington. The next place of interest was the Smithsonian Institution and the Museum of Natural History, where the girls admired the fashions of the gay nineties and the boys marveled at early models of cars and airplanes.

After lunch in a government cafeteria, the group was guest of Representative Chas. B. Deane of Rockingham at the Capitol. Mr. Deane took the students through the House during a regular session and showed them various statues and paintings in the lobby. A group picture was taken here with Mr. Deane.

After leaving the Capitol, the next stop was the F.B.I. Building where expert firing was demonstrated. The guide also showed the bureau's laboratories, explaining equipment and telling of how specific cases were solved.

Friday's tours took in the Lincoln Memorial, Arlington Cemetery and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Lee's mansion, Washington Zoo, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and a few hours of shopping. Of these, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving was probably most interesting because of the money involved. The guide teased, saying that Saturday was "Sample Day"; the Pinehursters visited a day early.

On Saturday the group packed for the journey home, which took in Mount Vernon, the spacious estate of our first President. The trip home was marked with joking and singing, and, after being stuffed with Southern fried chicken in Raleigh, the tired but happy group again embraced Pinehurst, declaring: "The city is exciting, but there's no place like home."

Football

The six-man football squad from P.H.S. donned their uniforms for the first game with strong determination to make the '50-'51 season a successful one. They did just that with a 5-1 record to prove it!

The team whisked right thru the opener with Biscoe, defeating them easily. Going right on with full speed, the "Maroon and Gold" overpowered Carthage 32-8 with "Choo-Choo" Kelly, Fred McKenzie, and Eddie Ray carrying the pigskin for the touchdowns.

The Aberdeen "Red Devils" were no problem at all. In the closing minutes of the game, Marshall Ballard intercepted an Aberdeen pass for the most brilliant touchdown of the season, and McKenzie kicked for a 45-7 victory for P.H.S.

Then came the game of the year with the strong Southern Pines squad. Our boys put their hearts into it, but fate seemed to be against them. Ted Veno and Bud Morgan made the two spectacular touchdowns of the day with McKenzie kicking.

Injuries to Dicky Kelly and Larry Hartsell clouded the day for the Pinehurst fans and team. Our boys finally gave in with a score of 36-14, but not without honors. They were presented a beautiful gold trophy as runners-up in Moore County football. Congratulations to a great team!

Next year the team will be fighting without seniors Fred McKenzie, Dicky Kelly, and Jimmy Dupree. Their absence will leave a big gap in the team's offense.

Boys' Basketball

The "fighting five" of P.H.S. continuously displayed the spirit that won 11 of 21 games this season. The boys racked up a total 889 points against opponents' 904, averaging 42.3 points per game.

High scorers for the season were Dicky Kelly, 209; Jimmy Dupree, 179; and Eugene Morgan, 154. Others were Larry Hartsell, fast sophomore with 118; Flashy Ted Veno with 117; Joe Williamson, promising sophomore with 52; Tommy Darst, 30; Nick Hunt, 20; "Red" Wathen, 9; Gene McKenzie, 1; Frank White, 1; Fred Garrison, Charles Warrington, and Darius McKenzie.

Seniors are Dicky Kelly, Jimmy Dupree, and Nick Hunt. These will be missed next year.

Girls' Basketball

Pinehurst High's strong sextet set a fine record this year, winning fourteen of the twenty games played. Our losses were to a very strong Biscoe squad, West End, Robbins, Aberdeen, and Southern Pines in a tournament game. The high-scoring forwards racked up a total 908 points against opponents' 734, averaging 45 points per game.

Ranking highest among scorers were rangy Marcia Black, 284; Betty Boggs, 246, and Carolyn Nelson and Annie Mae Morgan (tying) close with 178 and 173, respectively. Others contributing to the team's many victories were Betty McKenzie, who suffered a knee injury during the season; Janet Frye, 6; Paul Clapp, 5; Martha Moon, 2; and Florene Yarborough, 2.

These hard-fighting guards ended the season receiving the congratulations of the entire county. They are Jeri Yarborough, Laverne Moon, Frances Oldham, Gail Hobson, Peggy Garrison, Ann Hamor, Julie McCaskill, and Jo Ann Davis.

A blow to the team will be the loss of seniors Carolyn Nelson, Betty McKenzie, Laverne Moon, and Jo Ann Davis.

Tennis

Several players from Pinehurst took part in the second annual Moore County Schools Tennis Tournament played in Southern Pines early in May. All finalists in the Girls' Doubles were Pinehurst Girls. Carolyn Nelson and Pete Duns defeating Julia McCaskill and Gail Hobson, 6-3, 6-4. Carolyn also played in the Girls' Singles and Frank White in the High School Boys' Singles.

Others taking part in the tournament were Peggy Garrison, Eddie Ray, Richard Pinion, Margaret Green, Martha Currie, Leslie Gilleland, Tom Darst, Frazier Smith, and Annie Mae Morgan.

Class Prophecy

With the aid of a powerful 1970 rocket ship I have managed to interview in one day the entire graduating class of 1951.

The Senior Class of 1951 has certainly proved to be a successful group! Just let me tell you what I found each of these prosperous seniors doing!

I found Melvin Clapp the owner of a line of large chain stores modeled after the one at Eastwood, where he first worked. His business is steadily growing, and of course he complains about the amount of income tax he has to pay.

Sherrill Cole, after making a fortune in his electric business, can be found either at his ranch or playing golf on Pinehurst's famous number two course.

I finally found Jo Ann Davis in Ivey's Department Store as head buyer in the Ladies' Ready-to-wear section. She makes several trips a year to N-w York to buy the latest creations.

Margie Garner has finally succeeded in landing the job as news editor of that fast-growing magazine, TALL WOMEN!

Nicky Hunt, after graduating from State, became vice-president of the A&P Company and now lives in Chicago.

Dicky Kelly can be found running the one and only miniature golf course in Alaska. He has a plane and often flies to Pinehurst for a visit.

Betty Lee McKenzie and Laverne Moon left for Washington, D.C. after they graduated. Betty Lee is now known as J. Edgar McKenzie, while Laverne is special agent No. 1 for the F.B.I.

Fred McKenzie, USMC, is now at Camp Lejeune training a bunch of new recruits.

Mary Ellen Thompson, who married Curtis during her senior year, is now living happily at Jackson Springs, where she and Curtis have a lovely home.

Carolyn Nelson has fulfilled her ambition to be a third grade teacher in the Belgian Congo. She is teaching the little natives not only readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic but basketball as well.

Allen Watson, after joining the navy for twenty years, has actually become a sea captain. He owns a line of luxury boats that are popular for summer cruises.

After finally catching up with Ruth Weeber, I found her the most popular actress in Vienna, her old home.

As for Jimmy Dupree—well, he is heading the United Nations for his fourth term. He is doing good work, considering the fact that we have had only FIVE wars since he was elected.

Pearl Smith, now Mrs. Charles Frye, is living in Pinehurst with Charles, who manages the Pinehurst Garage.

Canara Garner is now a highly valued stewardess on an Eastern Airlines plane. Her soft voice calms the fears of uneasy passengers.

Verlon Ritter has succeeded in establishing a line of attractive eating places along Highway No 1. They are known as the "Ritter Restaurants" and are very popular.

Pinehurst Hi Glee Club

Winners Of The Picquet Cup

The Pinehurst High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Mary McQueen, had a successful year. The chorus was composed of thirty-six voices.

At the April P. T. A. meeting the glee club made its first public appearance of the year. They sang two numbers, "Come Again, Sweet Love" and "The Lord's Prayer".

On May 9 the glee club entered the annual contest for glee clubs of Moore County. This contest is sponsored by the Sandhills Kiwanis Club. Competing with Southern Pines, Aberdeen, and Westmore, Pinehurst won first place. Winning the Charles Picquet cup for a third time, although not in successive years, the Pinehurst Glee Club now holds it permanently. For their numbers in the contest they sang "Come Again, Sweet Love", by John Dowland, "Czechoslovakian Dance Song," author unknown, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Harry Wilson.

The following people make up the glee club: Linda Whitesell, Betty Boggs, Jeri Yarborough, Betty Black, Marlene Frye, Tommy Darst, Coy Frye, Gene Mc-

Pianist: Harriet Wilkes

Orchids!

To Mrs. McCaskill for the fine work she did in raising funds to finance the Junior-Senior trip to Washington.

To Coaches Bill Wall and Paul Monroe for their patience and hard work in developing skill, teamwork, and fair play among basketball and football players.

To Jeri Yarborough and Ted Veno, whose outstanding playing won for them first team positions on the All-County teams.

Senior Class Gift

This year the Senior Class is presenting to the school two pictures as a symbol of our appreciation and in remembrance of many happy days at Pinehurst High. One picture is a scene of the beautiful Blue Ridge Parkway, and the other is a golf course scene here in Pinehurst. These two pictures are to be placed in the cafeteria, where we hope, they will add to the pleasure of everyone.

Alma Mater

On the city's eastern border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.
Forward ever be our watchword!
Conquer and prevail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Pinehurst High, all hail!
Cherished by our sons and daughters
Mem'ries sweet shall throng.
Gathered 'round our Alma Mater
As we sing thy song.

Beta Club News

Members of the Beta Club this year are Margie Garner, Jo Ann Davis, Laverne Moon, and Ruth Weeber from the twelfth grade; and Shirley McKenzie, Betty Black, Barbara Cole, Jerolene Yarborough, Linda Whitesell, and Betty Jean Boggs from the eleventh grade.

These girls are selected, not only on the basis of their scholastic ability, but their character and their attitude toward the school are also taken into consideration. A student to be eligible must have no grades lower than B in his first two years in high school and he must have the approval of both faculty and superintendent. Membership is open to both boys and girls, but at present no boys are members.

The Beta Club this year has sponsored the school paper. Four times they have published "The Sandspur", copies of which were sold to the students. Their final work is this issue of "The Sandspur", a gift to each pupil, and partly financed from the sale of earlier issues.

Last Year's Seniors Making Good

As graduation draws near, I begin to wonder what becomes of our "old" graduates. In order to find out, I decided last month to visit each of them.

My first stop was in Greensboro at W.C. where I found Jean Watson and Libby Thomas studying for final exams. Reports from the college are that they are doing fine work there.

At Rex Hospital I ran across Joy Bristow and Betty Ellen Ritter rushing up and down the halls answering the calls of their patients. They really seem to enjoy their new life.

At Cabarrus County Hospital, Peggy Cole was taking life easy as she had the afternoon off. As you know, she won the Nurses' Scholarship given by the Veterans.

Jacksonville, Florida is a nice place to visit and while there I found S/A Bennett Napier. He is attending aviation school there and says it seems just like old high school days.

After my trip south, I rode down to Fort BRAGG one afternoon to pass some time with Leo Davis. He seems to like Army life and declared it was not so bad as people say it is.

On my return from Fort Bragg by way of U.S. No. 1, I stopped in to visit Doris and Joel, who are living in a nice little cottage near Vass.

I made my stop here in town at the Pinehurst Plumbing Shop to find Mary Frances Whitesell loudly counting nuts and bolts.

I had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith last night at the Honeymoon Cottage. As you know, Mrs. Smith is the former Carolyn Black. The two of them are employed by Robbins Mills in Aberdeen.

Another employee of the Robbins Mills is Wilma Clayton, who continues to like her work.

The twelfth senior I found working in the Central Carolina Telephone Office in Southern Pines. Juanita Frye agrees that such work is very interesting.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Pinehurst High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

FIRST: We leave our best wishes to the school which has meant so much to us for the last twelve years.

SECOND: To Mr. Cannon, our superintendent, whose unending patience has dwelt with us through these last few years, we leave our deepest gratitude and appreciation.

THIRD: To Pinehurst High School, we leave two murals for the walls of the cafeteria. One is a typical Pinehurst scene; the other a typical mountain scene. Here's hoping that future senior classes will follow our example and present more murals to the cafeteria and the new school building.

FOURTH: To Mr. Monroe, we leave the assurance that he can rest easy for the coming year for we shall be "long gone" from his presence.

FIFTH: To the 1952 Senior Class, we leave our room, our books, our helpful teacher, Mr.

SIXTH: To make Pinehurst high happy, we just leave.

SEVENTH: These various articles from members of the Senior Class are left to certain individuals throughout Pinehurst High.

1. Pearl Smith leaves her secret of how to acquire a fiancé to Marlene Frye.

2. Ruth Weeber leaves her quaint charm to Gail Hobson.

3. Jimmy Dupree leaves his facial characteristics to Tommy Darst with the hope that he may someday become another Jerry Lewis.

4. Dicky Kelly leaves his muscles to Mr. Wall so that he can better contend with tenth grade prize fighters.

5. Jo Ann Davis leaves to Betty Black her cooking ability so that she can surprise Fred with a big dinner of "sweet taters and 'possum."

6. Betty Lee leaves her happy disposition to Jeanette Williamson. It will prove helpful on many occasions.

7. Melvin leaves his trips to change to the driver who gets famous "60" bus.

8. Verlon rounded up a few sailors while she was in Washington. These she reluctantly gives to Margie Black.

9. To any junior who will have it, Margie Garner leaves her position as editor of "The Sand-spur". She leaves that junior, too, a box of aspirin.

10. Fred McKenzie has at last agreed to part with his educated place-kicking toe. Larry Hartsell will be using it next year.

11. Nicky Hunt decided to leave his lazy razor to Eddie Ray so Eddie can spruce up and make a good impression in Carthage.

12. Laverne wills her long line of boy friends to Betty Jean Hoggis and hopes that they don't run off and join the navy.

13. The only thing Mary Ellen could offer was Curtis, and since she refuses to part with him, we are afraid you are out of luck, girls.

14. Sherrill leaves his carload of girls to anyone who will have them.

15. Carolyn leaves this advice to Julie McCaskill: "Keep plugging and you'll make it someday". Otherwise she just leaves.

16. Allen leaves his love for Margie Garner to Marshall Ballard.

17. Last but not least comes Canara. After much thought she has decided to leave Ann Hamor her girlish figure.

Commencement Marshals

Marshals for the 1951 commencement exercises are Shirley Graham and Janet Frye from the ninth grade; Clara Sheffield and Pat Chriscoe from the tenth grade; Shirley McKenzie, chief; Barbara Cole, assistant chief, and Jerolene Yarborough from the eleventh grade.

History Of Senior Class

As historian of the Senior Class of 1951, I take great pride in giving to you some of the achievements and activities of our four years in Pinehurst High School.

The present senior class, formerly made up of twenty-seven members, was a happy and eager bunch of youths when they entered high school in September 1947. This whole new idea of changing classes was so different from our regular all-day-long sessions. Miss Morris was our home room teacher, and under her guidance we studied English and first year Latin. Latin, of course, being the dreaded class of the day. That year marked the beginning of our regular jaunts to nearby Aberdeen Lake, where we acquired everything from blisters to chiggers and broken toes.

Our four years here at Pinehurst High School have been wonderful for us, and it is with a feeling of sadness that we now leave to seek other fields of work and happiness.

Our sophomore year was just another one of our happiness-filled adventures. This year we were more active in sports and the different school activities. Miss Epps was our home room teacher and she had a difficult time keeping our group quiet during study periods. Both boys and girls were active in basketball during our sophomore year. Some of our girls helped the team win the runners-up trophy that year. The boys participated in football, and we had a good team.

Mrs. McCaskill was our home room teacher in junior year. By far the most exciting event of that year was the Junior-Senior trip to Charleston. We sponsored the Hallowe'en Carnival in October and it was a great success. We were active in sports, and our girls again helped to win the runners-up trophy in basketball.

Our senior year has been one filled with excitement. We have tried to keep up the traditional dignified airs by participating in such activities as the Beta Club and sponsoring "The Sandspur."

This year we had our senior play, "The Valley of Ghosts", in the Carolina Theater, and we truly felt like real actors and actresses. We shall never forget the fun we had and the coke sessions we enjoyed while practicing at Mr. Monroe's. As you all know, our grammar school building and auditorium burned in September and for that reason we had to have our annual Hallowe'en Carnival on the football field. Our class helped sponsor it again this year and as usual it was a success in every way.

We have had several parties this year which were fun for all of us. Most of them were held at the American Legion Hut. We shall miss these happy "get-togethers," but we hope that the rising senior class will continue these fried-chicken sessions.

The high light of this year was our three-day trip to Washington. We were the first class to take a long trip in our new activities bus.
